Grand Plaza Hotel - Branson, MO - April 16 - 20, 2012
Association of North American Missions

You are invited to the 2012 Leadership Forum!

BRANSON, MO is our destination. Our hotel is offering special rates for 3 days before and after the Forum so make plans to spend some “time away”. Check out vacation plans at www.explorebranson.com and www.silverdollarcity.com.

LEGACY LEADERS - Our sessions are geared for leaders at all levels. Bert Downs has spent his life leading and developing leaders and will share from that wealth as he challenges us to consider our LEGACY - what we leave to those who follow after. Jason Koppen will challenge us to pass our faith along to the next generation. Richard Hammar will help us manage risks that could destroy our legacy.

The ELISHA INITIATIVE is a project to assist member organizations in developing NEXT GENERATION leaders. We invite all next generation leaders and those who are working with them to be with us for the whole week. Mike Jones will lead our discussion on Thursday, sharing ways to make the ELISHA INITIATIVE a part of each mission’s practice.

We will have informative 7 -11 CHATS during the Forum. Think of the quick conversation that you have with a friend at the 7 - 11. You always gain something and you will here, too!

The SIGHT & SOUND THEATRE Biblical presentation of “Joseph” will be one highlight of our week. We are seeking to raise funds from friends of ANAM to cover the cost of our members and subsidize our guests. (www.sight-sound.com)

Plan to be with us from Monday afternoon through our business session and concluding challenge on Friday morning. This is a “DON’T MISS IT” event!

Workshop Presenters

Dr. Bert Downs has served as the Director of the Southwest Church Connection since 2006. Prior to that, he served as President of Western Seminary, Director of Pine Summit Christian Conference Center, a Vice President of Walk Through the Bible, and in public education.

Dr. Jason Koppen has served as the tenth president of Indian Bible College since 2009. Jason was preparing to be a medical missionary to South America, but God redirected his steps. He has served as youth pastor, associate pastor, and senior pastor prior to IBC. He came to IBC as academic dean, a office he still holds.

Dr. Richard Hammar is an attorney and CPA, and has authored over 100 books specializing in legal and tax issues for churches and clergy. He also writes the Church Law & Tax Report and Church Finance Today newsletters. He is a regular speaker at legal and tax conferences and is a member of the Missouri and Illinois Bar Associations.

Dr. Michael Jones is the Assistant Director of Village Missions. He has served with Village Missions since 1984 as a missionary/pastor, as a District Representative, and in his current position since 2003. His responsibilities include the oversight and supervision of the District Representatives, missionaries, and churches served by Village Missions in the United States.
